James River Recruits Industry Veteran Kelly Hadiaris to Lead Excess Casualty

March 4, 2026

CHAPEL HILL, N.C., March 04, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- James River Group Holdings, Inc. ("James River" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: JRVR) today announced that Kelly Hadiaris has re-joined the Company as Senior Vice President, Underwriting – Excess Casualty, to lead the Excess Casualty division within its Excess and Surplus ("E&S") segment. Ms. Hadiaris will report to Todd Sutherland, President of the E&S segment.

Ms. Hadiaris brings more than two decades of experience in the E&S market, with deep expertise across technical underwriting, portfolio management, and underwriting operations. She held senior underwriting roles with firms including Markel, Berkley, and Allianz where she was responsible for building and managing complex casualty portfolios and leading high-performing underwriting teams.

At James River, Ms. Hadiaris will be responsible for the strategic direction, underwriting performance, and profitable growth of the Excess Casualty division. Ms. Hadiaris previously worked at James River, where she played a key role in the early development of the Company's excess and general casualty portfolios. Her return brings both deep market experience and familiarity with James River's underwriting approach and culture.

Todd Sutherland, President of E&S commented, "Kelly's breadth of experience, strong relationships, and deep technical knowledge of the excess casualty market position her well to lead this important business. We are excited to have her on the team as we continue to invest in and grow our E&S platform."
