

James River Announces Retirement of President & COO

June 23, 2021

PEMBROKE, Bermuda, June 23, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- James River Group Holdings, Ltd. ("James River" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: JRVR) today announced the retirement of Robert P. (Bob) Myron, President and Chief Operating Officer, after more than 11 years with the organization. Mr. Myron will retire effective July 31, 2021 for health reasons related to lingering effects of Lyme Disease. The Company and Mr. Myron expect to maintain a consulting relationship through December 31, 2021.

Frank D'Orazio, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, commented, "I'd like to thank Bob for his numerous contributions to the Company. He has led operations at every level of the Company, including as CEO and as a member of the Board of Directors. Throughout his distinguished tenure at James River, Bob has demonstrated outstanding leadership and dedication to the organization, and the foundation he has laid will remain a key factor in our continued success. Bob has been a valuable partner and resource for me and I know I speak for the entire James River Group in wishing him the very best in his retirement."

Mr. Myron commented, "I'd like to thank the Company and its Board of Directors for supporting me throughout my tenure at James River. The Company is in great hands under Frank's strong leadership and the capabilities of the senior management team. Going forward, I have every confidence in James River's ability to flourish in the markets it serves and continue to build long term value."
